

On The Horizon for the 42nd annual Festival of the Forks Friday, September 19 and Saturday, September 20, 2008

- more great music
- more great art
- more extensive targeted regional advertising to attract more people to our great community
- more signage and more volunteer “greeters” during the Festival

In addition to the highly successful events and activities of last year’s Festival:

- Mexican Heritage stage in parking lot next to Albion Paint Spot
- Plenty of food in Stoffer Plaza
- Buskers - strolling and street corner musicians, jugglers, magicians
- Albion High School all-class reunion with Distinguished Alumni Awards dinner.
- The high school band clinic
- Friday night headliner “Legend, The Band” at center stage and cruise-in
- “Art at the Forks” on S. Superior Street at the library and the Gardner House museum
- a student art tent featuring the works of students from Albion College, Albion Public Schools, Kellogg Community College, and Starr Commonwealth
- The Paul Keller Orchestra in our annual tribute to Eddie Russ
- Marcus Belgrave as the Saturday night headliner at the Victory Park bandshell

We are planning

- The dedication of an historic marker commemorating the founding of the Festival
- A celebration of t-ball which started in Albion over 50 years ago
- A 3-on-3 basketball tournament
- Additional hands-on activities for children and youth
- A disc golf tournament

We encourage all local businesses to participate in the Festival and in the parade.
